

DISTRICT COURT OPENS OCT. 2 WITH BIGGEST CIVIL DOCKET

Monda, Oct. 2. District Judge G. L. Hatch will commence the first term of the district court of Bryan county and according to the docket setting will be held every day until the 27th of the month set for trial this term the largest docket of civil cases ever to come before the court in Bryan county and if there has been a heavier docket of civil cases at any single term in the history of the state.

MONDAY, OCT. 2.

Motions. Demurrers, etc., filed by W. M. Brown, et al., ex rel., vs P. T.

Stewart vs H. S. Stewart vs Laura M. Haney,

E. J. Caraway, et al.,

Peters & Wright

vs. Joe Lyons, et al.

Ollie Keithley

vs First National

Baptist, et al., J. D. Moore, et al.

H. Hill vs E. W. Stewart, et al.

Alabama State Bank, Caddo, vs L.

A. Becking, vs O. R. Nicholson, et al.

Stinker, minor, vs J. A.

First National Bank, Soper, vs P. H.

Rutherford Lumber Co. vs A. B. Ruther, et al.

Bank of Park, Texas, vs M. Dickey.

Sampson Investment Co. vs J. D.

Johnson, et al.

Sampson Investment Co. vs Fort

H. Johnson, et al.

Sampson Investment Co. vs T. D.

Johnson, et al.

Sampson Investment Co. vs War-

W. Phillips, et al.

W. M. Marsh, et al.

L. G. Nichols, et al.

Bank, Bellington, vs

Investment Co. vs C. C.

C. Clark, et al., vs A. L.

Bank Commissioner vs

Bank Commissioner, vs</p